AU PAIR REMUNERATION

Remuneration depends on your agency and where you are located, overseas or locally. Either as an hourly rate or a fixed monthly rate. The family will pay this directly to you. As a Certified Au Pair you can expect a rate between R60 and R150 per hour depending on your experience and qualifications. These rates do not include travel. Travel could be reimbursed according to AA rates. Usually the family would decide to include or exclude a travel allowance. All students that want to be au pairs and have not joined an agency, they will be referred to and receive assistance to place them with the right agency that suits them.
